Stock Market Maintains Rise in Values In Absence of Bearish News or Rumors

STRENGTH CONSISTENT THROUGH BOTH LISTS

Advances Well Distributed in Railroad and Industrial Stocks-Activity in Colorado Stocks.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.-The stock market this morning, while dull, showed consistent firmness, due to the less dis-turbing news from the Far East, and also to the increasing ease in the monetary situation.

Colorado and Southern issues advanced sharply on the prospect of an early collapse of the Colorado miners' strike There were also special movements in Iowa Central preferred, Kansas City, Southern preferred, and Des Moines and Fort Dodge. St. Lous Southwestern pre-ferred was unusually active, and advanced over a point on reports of a fav-orable outlook for earnings.

In the industrial group renewed sup-port in United States Steel preferred was apparent. Amalgamated Copper, after advancing ½ a point, became heavy, and reacted over 1 per cent. Westinghouse advanced 1½ per cent. Western Union was in better demand and rose over 2 per cent on expectations of the receipt of a large sum from the settlement with the American Bell Tel-

Brooklyn Rapid Transit was the leader of the local traction group, having a er of the local traction group, having a maximum gain of 1% per cent. The speculation was quiet, and showed some timidity, but there was no pressure in any direction. Governments were unchanged. Railroad bonds firm.

The market opened mostly higher and moderately active. The tone was confident throughout the list. The largest gain was 1% in Baitimore and Ohio, due to expected listing of it on the Berlin bourse. Atchison, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, Union Pacific, and Chicago Terminal, rose %. The international list rose fully % on the average.

TOO NEAR HIS FIGURE.

Apropos of recent revelations as to corruption in Federal office, a Washington man tells a story of how Gen. W. F. ("Baldy") Smith fought the temptation in civil war days. The veteran Ver-monter was stationed in a Southern State and was ordered to prevent any cotton shipments through his lines. This meant vast loss to the planters, ome of whom quietly gave him to ally found in his pocket. A belief in understand that he would "lose nothing" by relaxing his vigilance. Smith held by the early Britons, and it is freindignantly got rid of them, and wrote to Washington asking to be relieved from that location. The planters finally came down to specific offers, their last dream of coal is a certain sign of combid being $150,000. The general had sent ing riches. Then, too, there is the specto Washington full details regarding these interviews and when the planters offered the sum mentioned he wired: "Must be transferred to some other was formed of cannel coal, though the command at once.
